
Points are paired scenes; whiskers show observed min–max, diamonds show equal-scene means. No confidence intervals are implied.